

Trex Loopie Slings

Features & Benefits

- The Loopie is an adjustable round sling that works similarly to our popular Whoopie sling.
- Right off your hip, the Loopie can be quickly adjusted to provide a snug connection to most rigging hardware.
- The new Loopie is lightweight, strong and folds small for storage.
- Constructed from durable Teufelberger tREX I2-strand hollowbraid rigging line.
- Available in multiple diameters and lengths.
- Makes snug connections to most hardware.
- Lightweight construction allows for easy transport while working.
- Scannable compatible for track and traceability.
